GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Steve Michakowski, GK

Speaking on behalf of the entire council, I would like to send a heartfelt thanks to PGK Rich Rendeiro for the past three years of service. His dedication to the council and his leadership over the past three years is highly commendable.

I am looking forward to working with my officers and the whole council on the upcoming year. Summer is here and I want to remind you that the meetings in July, August and September are on the third Monday of the month only. I hope to see you at our upcoming meetings and events.

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Rev. Stanley Jarosz
732-521-0172

With love to each other and great respect of God, we approach Summer. We are looking for our spiritual health, but we wish to have fun in this summer time. There are those who thinking about the followers of Christ that they are constantly opposed to having fun. Do you really know what real fun is? Fun usually involves communion with others – visiting, eating, drinking, playing games, enjoying nature, a good movie or sporting event. Summer is a time when many people renew relationships by visiting relatives or welcoming them to their homes. Let us try to build communion with others standing strongly on our faith in God, so we do not ruin our spiritual health. God who loves all of us is never disturbing us to love each other. He invites us to love Him and love each other. And this is our spiritual life and this is our positive attitude. So let us engage ourselves in this summertime with worship to God and show others how we can be lovable persons because we love God.
