A MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF THE ST. JAMES KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS (#6336)

MARCH 2011

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Steve Mechkowski, GK
732-718-8365

I would like to congratulate Mike Romance for a fine job on the basketball free throw contest. We had excellent participation at the JFK Elementary School in Jamesburg. In addition, three girls won the district tournament and advanced to the regional free throw contest.

In addition, I would like to thank Stan Slabinski for an outstanding job on the 2011 Blood Drive.

Finally, our 2011 Fish Fries have started. Please come out and enjoy a good meal and/or lend a helping hand. We need all the help we can get.

MESSAGE FROM OUR CHAPLAIN

Rev. Stanley Jarosz
732-521-0172

Lent is a good time to stand, sit or kneel and reflect on our lives. Starting on our journey of Lent, let us go and not only ask, but find the answer to the question, "What is the meaning of life?" The world of today has so many different answers to this question. The meaning of life....we can find in success, in fun, in family, in money or in charity. But none of them gives us the full answer and we, as believers, know that only God can feel our deeper needs.

St. Augustine said that "Our heart is restless until they rest in God." He made this statement based on his longing and searching for the meaning of his life. Remember we can find the answer as well as St. Augustine did. As we come closer to our Lord let us use wisely the time of this Lenten journey through prayer, fasting and almsgiving.
